

Women's Health & Fertility

— SEMINAR —

Saturday, February 24, 2018

9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

St. Thomas University, Convocation Hall
16401 NW 37th Ave, Miami Gardens, FL 33054

Come learn about true women's healthcare!

This seminar is designed to educate, inspire and empower all who attend. All are welcome: couples, singles, parents, clergy, religious and the medical community.

The event will feature keynote speakers, breakout sessions, SoulCore stretching, vendor and resource tables and more. Lunch, coffee and snacks will be provided. Simultaneous Spanish translation will be available upon request.

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Christopher Stroud, MD

an obstetrician/Gynecologist and Certified Medical Consultant in Creighton Model Fertility/NaProTechnology.
His practice is Fertility and Midwifery Care Center in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Haley Stewart

a writer, speaker, Catholic convert, and homeschooling mama to three living in Waco, TX.
She blogs at www.CarrotsforMichaelmas.com where she discusses faith, motherhood, books, culture, and simple living.
She also co-hosts "The Fountains of Carrots" podcast and her first book with Ave Maria Press will be released in Fall of 2018.
